Claims due to failure as a result of misuse, incorrect installation or repair, collisions, accidents, or neglect to follow instructions and all documentation will not be covered under the warranty. See below further details of exclusions (but not limited to):

The purchaser indemnifies and shall keep Jolt Rider Ltd indemnified against any claim by the purchaser or any third party in respect of any liability, losses, costs, expenses, damages or penalties that may be incurred or suffered due to or arising out of the sale of Jolt Rider products to the purchaser or the use or misuse of the product by the purchaser or any other person.

These terms are made available and/or provided to you at the time of sale and deemed understood and accepted as the defining terms and conditions of the sale of Jolt Rider products to the Purchaser.
